Margaret Aylward Centre for Faith and Dialogue
The Holy Faith sisters built the centre to share the beauty of our natural resources and the spiritual heritage of Glasnevin which is associated with the monastic settlement of St Mobhi. Here we hope to continue our mission in a spirit of inclusivity in contemporary Ireland. The Centre will provide a gathering space for groups in the local community, including serving as a place for ecumenical and inter-religious dialogue. It will offer space for those seeking periods of tranquillity. The Centre will be available to former Holy Faith schools for staff and student reflection days..
