ST. COLUMBA'S Iona Fun Day

The Funday Committee would like to thank all those who volunteered during last Sunday's Iona Fun Day. It was a huge success and great to see so many people supporting.

A few items were not collected at the end of the Fun Day these include:- 1 x Laura Ashley Tin with no lid, 1 x Colourful plate, 2 x Tupperware Cartons and a Glass Bowl. Please contact Ann Coyle @ 087 6728761 to arrange collection.

The Iona Family Fun Day which was held last Sunday was most successful. In spite of a doubtful weather forecast the sun shone. It was wonderful to see so many children enjoying the church grounds. Fr. Paddy Jones chatted to all - he was the host for the afternoon. 23 Dogs registered for the Dog show and thanks to the generosity of local vet Michael Hatton all received a doggy goody bag. The cup for best dog in show was awarded to Prince O'Reilly of Carlingford Road. Work began after Easter when new tents and sound system were bought. After the 6.00pm Mass on Saturday an army of the local community - male, female and youth transformed the grounds into a funfair. Pat and Mark McKay lent their van and Breandan Ó Laoire his trailer to transport the props from storage. Frank Toomey organised a 40ft trailer as a stage and the Band was sourced by Martin Tynan. Gerry Neary provided Mr. Strongman and spent the day looking after it. There was a BBQ which served burgers, chicken and sausages. The salad bar, Café Columba and pig on spit served delicious food with crepes and ice cream. There was Golf, Throwing, Bowl a Ball, Face Painting, Punch & Judy, a Cartoonist, Football for the accurate kickers and an array of Bouncing Castles. The Glasnevin Academy of Music provided young musicians and singers. The Parish Priest drew the raffle tickets, and the winners were:

N. O'Leary, M. Cullen, M. Chawke, V. Fitzpatrick, E. Scott, C. O'Leary, M. Cullen, M. Fitzpatrick, M. O'Brien, N.O'Leary, H. Caulfield, Y. Carroll, T. McGlynn, R. McDonald, H. Rushe, G. Bolger, N. Walsh S. Kilty, P. Donnelly, B. Kilty, D. O'Leary, E. Henry, C. Kelly, J. Hickey. J. McLoughlin. F. O'Leary, C. Ryan, C. McKay. The flyer prize was won by Andrew Mulkearns
The M.C for the day was Robbie Irwin. At 5.30pm the heavens opened and the rain made cleaning up very difficult. The committee, which is chaired by John O'Connor, is most appreciative of the support given in so many different ways by so many members of the local community.
