Parish of St. Columba

25th June, 2017

The Word was made flesh
and lived amongst us

Mission Statement

St. Columba's parish is a vibrant and welcoming community of faith, continuing to give practical witness to the Good News of Christ, through worship and reflection, and through Christian service to the community.

Clareville celebrated last week.

On Tuesday all those in wheelchairs were taken to the Botanic Gardens and enjoyed Ice Cream Cones.

On Wednesday a mid-summer garden party was held – Strawberries and Cream were served. On Thursday a Breakfast as enjoyed by Leopold Bloom was enjoyed by all. Proinnsias O'Cilín read from Ulysses and spoke of James Joyce's success at the Feis Ceoil.

Music was provided by the 'Invincibles'.

The sunny days added to the enjoyment.
