Sun, 14 Feb:	First Sunday of Lent Rite of Election at Pro-Cathedral (Men and women from parishes in the Diocese preparing for Baptism enrol or are 'elected' for Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist in their parishes this Easter.

Mission Statement

St. Columba's parish is a vibrant and welcoming community of faith, continuing to give practical witness to the Good News of Christ, through worship and reflection, and through Christian service to the community.

A Note from Fr Paddy

A short note on three items, like some homilies!

New shrines. After a lengthy trial period and consideration of rent and running costs by the Finance Committee, a new candle system has been installed at the shrines in the church. Let them be an invitation to stop, reflect and say a prayer.

Some will have seen them installed recently. Indeed there has been some activity around the church, unfortunately, examining areas of the church where there are leaks and water damage.

“May I have a Mass said on Sunday the third, please?” But that Sunday is already booked. The Saturday evening Mass is available as a ‘shared Mass,’ when a number of intentions are included. It’s hard to get a right way especially with only one Sunday Mass celebrated. We are not taking long-term requests in order to give priority to a request for a First Anniversary or a Month’s Mind. Also, a Parish Priest is obliged to celebrate Mass for the parishioners on Sundays and hollydays. While this can be honoured on another day, it is appropriate to have some Sundays with the Mass pro populo. Bear with us as we try to work towards a good and satisfactory method.

Help required. All our parish groups and activities welcome new members, not simply as help but also to have parishioners involved in these groups and activities. An immediate area that would welcome new members is the sacristy and general cleaning and care of the church building.

The Glasnevin Grouping of parishes is organising a Lenten series of talks on St. Luke’s Gospel, each Monday during Lent from Mon. 8th Feb. given by Dr. Kieran O’ Mahony. Luke is the Gospel that we are reading at Mass each Sunday this year and is often seen as the Gospel of mercy. Kieran is a biblical scholar, who has a unique gift for making the scriptures accessible to all. The talks will take place in the Margaret Aylward Centre for Faith and Dialogue from 8.00-9.30pm each evening and will include time for questions and refreshments.

The Mass of Healing and Anointing of the Sick This Sun. 7th Feb. at 3.00 pm in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, Merrion Road. Copies of the World Day of the Sick Diocesan Prayer Book are available from the Book Shop

IONA ACTIVE RETIREMENT

The members who attended the Craft Class on Thursday with thrilled with the greeting cards they produced. Further Craft Classes will be held on Thursday 18th and 25th February.

Tuesday 9th February: Committee meeting after Morning Mass in room at the back of Sacristy.

Thursday 11th February: Monthly meeting at 10.15 a.m. in Annex. Guest Speaker: Mark Roxburgh

Monday 29th February: Carlow: Minibus will leave church at 12.30 p.m. to connect with 13.15p.m. train from Heuston. Those who wish to book a seat on the minibus please give names to Maureen Phelan. Cost (out and back) is €10. Money should accompany the name.

Anois teacht an Earraigh Spring came to Iona with a flourish last week. On Monday the Mass of St. Brigid was celebrated by Fr. Pat O’Donoghue while on Tuesday (Candlemas Day), the Parish Priest led the Morning Mass Brigade, all of whom carried lighted candles, to the sanctuary, where the candles were placed ceremoniously on the altar rails. On Wednesday, following Morning Mass, the Feast of St. Blaise was celebrated by the blessing of the throats.
