

Reflection : It has been a great joy to welcome back parishioners to daily Mass this week. It's a wonderful start to our Advent journey and gives us all a lift. We look forward this Sunday to our first Sunday Mass with a congregation in nearly ten weeks. The beautiful words of Isaiah in the First Reading seem to resonate with our experience: 'Console my people, console them' says your God. Speak to Jerusalem and call to her that her time of service is ended'. With the easing of restrictions we can look forward to spending Christmas with loved ones, do some shopping and enjoy a meal out. Amid all the excitement and joy of the Advent season, Isaiah also reminds us to prepare a way for the Lord, and John the Baptist takes up the call in the Gospel. There are so many ways we can do that this year, without leaving home. As well as online retreats and daily email or facebook reflections, parishioners will have received a colourful Advent journey activity pack with our Christmas mailing, with simple suggestions for prayers and activities we can do alone or as a family at home. This Advent let's truly welcome Christ into our homes! Fr. Richard Sheehy

Parish of St. Columba

6th December 2020

A PRAYER FOR THE Second Sunday of Advent

Jesus, you came among us with the irresistible power of a baby, requiring both our hands and captivating our whole hearts.
Help us to cast aside the sin and brokenness that we cling to, so we might be ready to hold you when you come again.
Amen.

IDEAS AND INFORMATION ON ADVENT

Parishioners should have received our Christmas Mailing this week, including the parish Christmas card and timetable of Christmas Services, an Advent activity pack with suggestions for simple activities and prayers we can do at home during Advent, a prayer card with the Act of Spiritual Communion prayer, and the Christmas Offering envelope. If you did not receive delivery of our Christmas mailing, please let us know so that we can add you to our mailing list.

As we did not deliver an Easter Offering envelope earlier this year, we are particularly grateful for the generosity of parishioners at this time.

An Advent Prayer Tree has been placed in the sanctuary. Prayer requests sent in by parishioners can be placed on the tree. One suggestion this year is that parishioners may wish to remember a loved one who cannot travel home from abroad or travel home from Ireland for Christmas this year. You might like to let us know of someone in your family who will not get home this year, and we will put their name on the Prayer Tree. We may try to read out some of the names over Christmas. You might mention which country or city they are living in. You can also remind your loved ones that they are welcome to join us for Christmas Mass via webcam (through the parish website www.ionaroadparish.ie) from any part of the world.

Living Advent Calendar 2020 The Christmas story is being narrated by parishes across the diocese in 25 days. On Wednesday 2nd, a young parishioner began the story at OLV church, Ballymun Road. Trish Close continues the story at Iona Road church this Sunday. These are being shared on Facebook, accessible from our website, every morning at 8am.

Preparation during Advent for the celebration of Our Lord's Nativity continues in OLD Glasnevin with A Children's Advent Story this Wednesday 9th December at 7.30pm.

On Wednesday 16th December at 7.30pm there will be a short service based on the O Antiphons, readings and music for Advent. Parishioners can attend at the church or participate via the webcam at www.glasnevinparish.ie

Advent Service Fr. Pat O'Donoghue led an Advent service on Saturday 28 November 2020 in the Monastery of Saint Alphonsus. You can watch the
